

Celebrating Our Heritage, Our People

SGH Heritage Day Celebrations

23-25 March 2011

SGH IS 190 THIS YEAR!

Enjoy 3 days of fun, performances, quizzes and special exhibitions as we celebrate SGH's 190th Anniversary at our first Heritage Day.

SGH HERITAGE DAY

23 March 2011, Deck on 9, 5pm-6.30pm

Celebrate the rich legacy of quality patient care and services at our birthday bash for all staff, and pay tribute to our mentors and our communities for their contributions.

I PLEDGE THEE, an exhibition on pledges by

doctors and nurses of SGH Campus

25 March - 20 May 2011

The SGH Museum and ArtsExpressions, SGH Blk 2 Level 1

Enquiries : 6326 5294

I Pledge Thee is an exhibition on graphology, the study of handwriting and its meanings. It features a collection of over 70 Hippocratic Oath and Nurses Pledge written by our doctors and nurses as a symbolic gesture of commitment to their professional and ethical standards, and their devotion and dedication of service to patient care. Take a closer look at the handwritings of our doctors and nurses and see if they match their personalities.

ARTS CONCERT

Angel In Disguise - Puppet Theatre by The Finger Players

25 March 2011, Deck On 9 (Blk 6 Level 9)

7pm - 7.45pm

Angel in Disguise is a story about three characters who overcome their mental and physical disabilities to lend a helping hand to the people around them. With a fairytale-like setting, appealing props and quirky puppets, the performance aims to share the values of self-confidence, compassion, teamwork with its audience and rekindle the human spirit! Free Admission. All are welcome!
