OUR ACHIEVEMENTS!

JCI-AMC Accreditation

SGH had undergone 4th Joint Commissions International (JCI) survey on 23 to 27 June. On 1 Jul, SGH was granted accreditation as a JCI-Academic Medical Centre (AMC). This is the first time that, in addition to the practices and processes we have in place to provide safe and quality care, the surveyors have reviewed our teaching and research activities. We are proud to achieve this for Singapore's largest Academic Hospital. Thanks for the strong support from our SingHealth colleagues and academic partner Duke-NUS!

National Day Awards 2014

125 from SGH were among the recipients of the National Day Awards 2014. Prof Ang Chong Lye, CEO, SGH was conferred The Public Administration Medal (Gold). The award was in recognition of his outstanding efficiency and competency in the Health Industry. A heartiest congratulations to our other National Day Awards 2014 recipients!

President's Nurse Award 2014

This award is the highest accolade of the nursing profession, and for the first time in fifteen years, the award was given to four recipients, instead of three. Ms Ng Wai May, Advanced Practise Nurse from the National Neuroscience Institute, was one of the recipients. Congratulations!
