

- 43 year old Japanese lady was ultrasonographically detected with a non-palpable, 1.2cm hypoechoic mass in the right upper outer quadrant.
- A mammotome (slide 1A) followed by a partial mastectomy (slide 1B) was performed.

(contributed by Dr Rin Yamaguchi)

