

Continuing Professional Education Lecture: Getting to Know Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM) 28 July 2021

Synopsis

In Singapore, the mainstream healthcare system is provided by Western modern medicine. However, it is a prevalent practice among Singaporeans to use Traditional Chinese Medicine for some illnesses. Some patients combine both western and TCM treatments in the hope for better treatment outcomes. Though healthcare professionals are well versed in Western medicine, they should have some basic understanding or appreciation of TCM knowledge so that they are able to advise their patients accordingly.

After the lecture, the participants will be able to gain an understanding on:

- Basic knowledge of TCM
- Giving appropriate advice on TCM use

Speaker

Mr Ricky Ang
Pharmacist
National Cancer Centre Singapore

Ricky Ang graduated with BSc (Pharm) from the National University of Singapore (NUS) in 1997. Currently, he is a Pharmacist in National Cancer Centre Singapore (NCCS).

In 2008, he obtained his Dip in TCM from The Singapore College of Traditional Chinese Medicine. In 2011, he received his Masters in TCM from Nanjing University of Chinese Medicine (NJUCM). And in 2014, he obtained his PhD in TCM from NJUCM.
