

Developing Leadership Capabilities & Effectiveness 19 & 25 November 2019

Introduction

To get to the top, we have to learn from the top. How do our leaders really think and operate?

In this 15th leadership intake, our passionate champion of talent development, Dr Ang Hui Gek will continue to share valuable leadership insights gained over the years in leading healthcare professionals to deliver value to patient care.

This course will set you thinking and redefining your leadership style and future interactions as you evaluate your leadership effectiveness. With action learning after each session, this course aims to help you achieve greater leadership effectiveness by enhancing your capabilities in managing relationships, and instilling the importance of leaving a legacy.

This course is also aligned to the competencies found in the SingHealth Leadership Competency Framework, namely develop self awareness, develop professionalism, communicate to influence, develop others and build positive relationships.
